ABOUT HUNTINGDON

The traditional market Town of Huntingdon is a thriving community flourishing amongst ancient and modern streets. Originally an Iron Age settlement, the first mention of the Town in a historical document is in the Anglo-Saxon Chronicle, which refers to it as a 'porte' or market Town being the main centre of Viking activity in the area. By the time of the Domesday survey in 1086, William the Conqueror had ordered a castle to be built in the Town in a commanding position overlooking the river. Huntingdon was granted its first charter by King John in 1205, which confirmed its borough status and allowed a weekly market.

With the 1530's dissolution of the monasteries, the Cromwell family were beneficiaries and they made their home at Hinchbrooke, on the site of the former nunnery. It was a minor member of the Cromwell family, Oliver, born in Huntingdon in 1599, who was to become the Town's most famous son. He took part in the Town's political life and was elected MP for Huntingdon in 1626.

Today's Town is largely a Georgian creation. Huntingdon prospered in the 18th century due to its advantageous position as a coaching stop on the turnpike road north from London. Huntingdon's inns flourished and the Town became fashionable. Balls and assemblies were held in the new Town Hall, rebuilt in 1745.

The coming of the railway in 1850 brought the end of the coaching trade, but it did little to halt Huntingdon's expansion. The Victorian era saw the building of schools and houses as well as the workhouse.

The Town Development Act of 1952 provided the impetus for the next phase in the Town's growth. Ambitious plans to attract new residents from London were made and building on the new Oxmoor estate began in 1960. During the 1980's Huntingdon was the fastest growing Town in the fastest growing County in the whole country. This prosperity was further enhanced when Huntingdon's former MP, John Major, became Prime Minister in 1990.

Getting Here is Easy:

By Road – Huntingdon has excellent road links, making it one of the most accessible market Towns in the country, located on the crossroads of the A1 (North / South) and A14 (East / West) with links to the M11 south.

By Rail – Huntingdon’s station is on the main London to Edinburgh route, offering a direct service connecting to Kings Cross/St Pancras and London Bridge every 30 minutes with an hour’s commute to London. Trains to Peterborough run approximately every half hour from where the Great North Eastern Railway service departs for the North and Scotland.

By Bus & Coach – The bus station provides regular bus services to Cambridge, Peterborough and St Neots. Long-distance coaches stop in the Town centre with national connections.

By Air – Three international airports at Luton, Stansted and Birmingham are within a 90-minute drive of Huntingdon. In addition, Gatwick Airport can be accessed by direct train link.

HUNTINGDON TOWN COUNCIL

The first Mayor of Huntingdon was recorded in 1630, however Huntingdon Town Council was formed in 1982, with its offices located within the Grade II* listed Town Hall.

The Town Council represents the first tier of local government in Huntingdon which is closest to its electors. Employing just over thirty staff in total, the Town Council consists of nineteen Councillors elected for a four-year term (next elections are due in May 2022) to represent constituents in the Town’s eight wards. Town Council meetings are presided over by the Town Mayor, who is elected from among fellow Councillors each year at the Annual Mayor Making ceremony. Consisting of all Councillors, the Town Council’s four Standing Committees are Planning, Finance, Leisure & Community Services and Corporate Plan & Strategy.

The Town Council precept raised via Huntingdonshire District Council for the financial year commencing 31 March 2021, was £1,382,976, being £181.37 on a Band D property p/a.

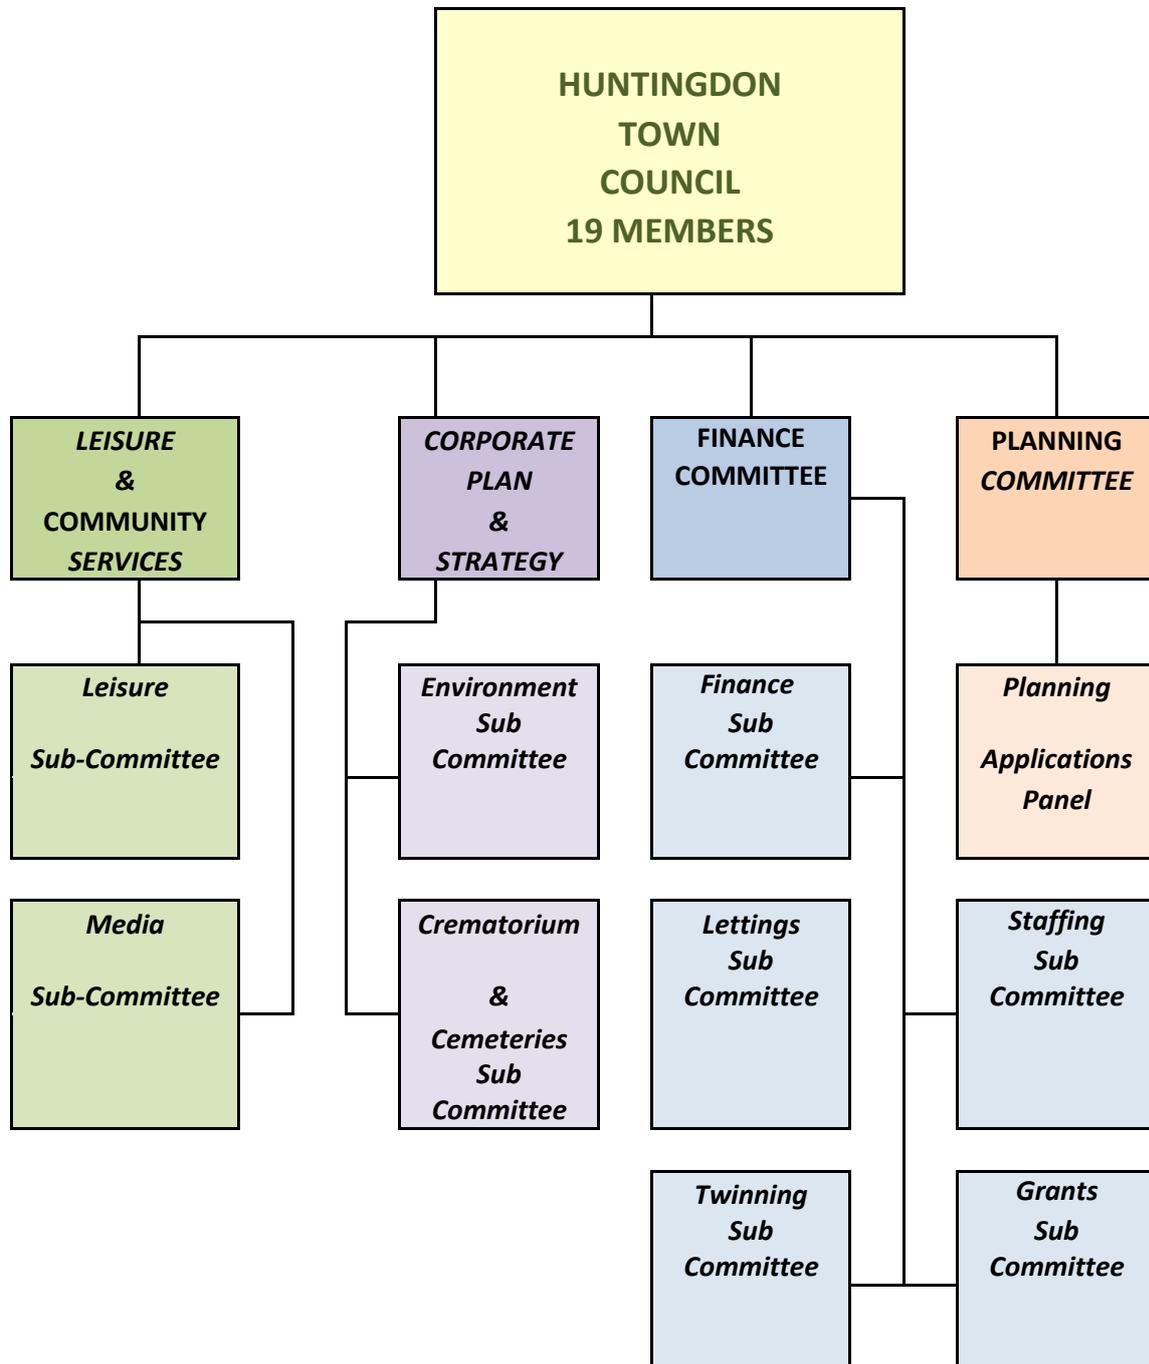

Huntingdon Town Council maintains a traditional approach to Local Government. Town Council meetings and important Civic Events see the Town Mayor, Town Clerk and Councillors fully robed with the Town Mayor attended by their Macebearer, who carries the Mace.

Huntingdon is twinned with four European towns – Salon de Provence; France, Wertheim am Main; Germany, Szentendre; Hungary and Gubbio; Italy.

Huntingdon Town Council places community development high on its list of objectives and in particular aims to ensure that a varied programme of entertainment, social and cultural activities is available to all sections of the community. An annual Summer Tea and Christmas Lunch for Pensioners; Pancake Flipathon on Shrove Tuesday, Summer Food & Drink Festival and a three-day Christmas Market are organised by the Council. Representatives from a wide range of community groups and organisations are invited to Civic events such as the Christmas Carol Service, the Annual Civic Service, Mayor Making and Remembrance Day.

The Council’s Estates portfolio includes: The Town Hall, Cromwell Museum, Coneygear Community Centre, Jubilee Park, Bloomfield Park, two KGV Playing Fields, (which include: Football, Cricket, Indoor & Outdoor Bowls, Indoor & Outdoor Tennis, Archery), four allotment sites and 20 play-areas. The construction of a new Crematorium and Cemetery, along with a depot and glass houses is due to open later this coming summer.
